

CEDIA® AWARDS

Health, Sustainability or Wellness Project

Definition of Category:

A project submitted to the Special Project category must reflect a unique installation that highlights the advancement of the residence's sustainability, health or wellness.

Acceptable projects for this category are primary residences (homes, condos) or assisted living/elder care facilities.

Essay Questions:

- What were the performance objectives for this design?
- Explain how your deployment of technology addressed the sustainability, health or wellness of the client.
- Which of the following subsystems were installed or integrated by your company?
 - Audio Distribution
 - Video Distribution
 - Integration Control
 - Network
 - Phone
 - Intercom
 - Off-Air and/or Satellite TV
 - Cellular
 - Lighting Design
 - Lighting Control
 - Shades Design
 - Shade Control
 - HVAC Control
 - Security – Video Surveillance, Access Gate/Door, Alarms
 - Vehicle Detection
 - Irrigation
 - Pool/ Spa
 - Fire
 - Other(s)
- Share any additional customer requirements or technical challenges.

Documentation:

- Floor Plan (Key components displayed on architectural floor plan of the unique solution)
- Schematic/Engineering Drawings (point-to-point wiring diagram of the solution)
- Room Layout Drawings
- Bill of Materials
- Other custom or technical drawings to further describe the installation as necessary

CEDIA[®]

AWARDS

Photos:

- Four (4) Installation Photos of Your Choice
- Front Rack Photo, as appropriate
- Back Rack Photo, as appropriate
- Up to ten (10) optional additional photos

Video Uploads (not required, but recommended)

- Video highlighting key integration and automation features throughout the installation
- One (1) optional project video

User Interface (if applicable)

- User Interface Demonstration – training video, including all operations (video)
- User Interface Manual (PDF)